

AGRI WEEK TOKYO 2019

Asia's Leading Show for Agriculture Technology

Dates: Oct. 9 – 11, 2019

Venue: Makuhari Messe, Japan

AGRI WEEK TOKYO - Join Asia's Leading Agriculture Industry show in October!

AGRI WEEK TOKYO 2019, used to be well-known as AGRI WORLD, has changed its name and come back to Makuhari Messe, Japan from Oct. 9 - 11, 2019. The show has been growing ever since its launch in 2011. Now, AGRI WEEK TOKYO has been established as Asia's leading exhibition for agriculture technologies where 680 exhibitors and 48,000* visitors are expected to all gather under one roof. The biggest news of this year is the launch of LIVESTOCK TOKYO, 1st Int'l Livestock Supply & Equipment Expo Tokyo, under AGRI WEEK TOKYO in response to the market growth in the livestock industry. With an addition of the livestock sector, AGRI WEEK TOKYO will provide even more comprehensive platform for the industry professionals.

*including concurrent shows

AGRI WEEK TOKYO consists of 4 shows:

AGRITECH TOKYO - 9th Int'l Agricultural Material & Technology Expo Tokyo -

AGRITECH TOKYO is Japan's leading industry trade show for agricultural materials & technologies. Companies who supply fertiliser/soil, protected horticulture, agricultural machinery, wild animal protection, etc. will exhibit at the show. Visitors are buyers/professionals from home centres, agricultural cooperatives, agricultural corporations, etc.

AGRINEXT TOKYO - 6th Next Generation Agriculture Expo Tokyo -

AGRINEXT TOKYO gathers the cutting-edge technologies and solutions for the agriculture fields, such as AI/IoT solution, automation, robot/drone, plant factory system, etc. The show also covers the renewable energy used in the agriculture such as solar sharing, biomass, small hydro/wind power generation. Visitors are from farmers, agricultural cooperatives, plant factory operators, local governments, etc.

4th Farmers' Processing & Sales Support Expo Tokyo

At FARMERS' PROCESSING & SALES SUPPORT EXPO TOKYO, products like food processing/packaging equipment and sales support system will be exhibited. Visitors are able to find equipment and systems that help them produce, process, and sell their agricultural products by their own.

[NEW] LIVESTOCK TOKYO - 1st Int'l Livestock Supply & Equipment Expo Tokyo -

This newly-launching show is specialised in the livestock industry, covering all kinds of its supplies & equipment. The show expects to welcome 120 exhibitors from the first year, and pig/poultry/cattle farmers, agricultural cooperatives, agricultural supply shops, home centres, etc. will visit the show.
