GARDEX 2019 - 13th International Garden Expo Tokyo -

GARDEX has been Japan's largest garden industry trade show since its launch in 2006. Besides all kinds of garden and horticultural supplies, this year, outdoor related products and flowers & plans will be showcased at newly launching exhibiting areas: Garden Flower & Plant, Outdoor Living, and Outdoor Furnishing areas. Outdoor Furnishing exhibiting area is especially for hotels and commercial facilities who are looking for fashionable for their space design. These new opening areas attract lots of companies and 210 exhibitors are expected to gather all at once. Also, as GARDEX is renowned as the best sourcing venue, many strong buyers from garden shops, home centres, landscapers, etc. will visit the show to source varieties of products.

AGRI WEEK TOKYO 2019

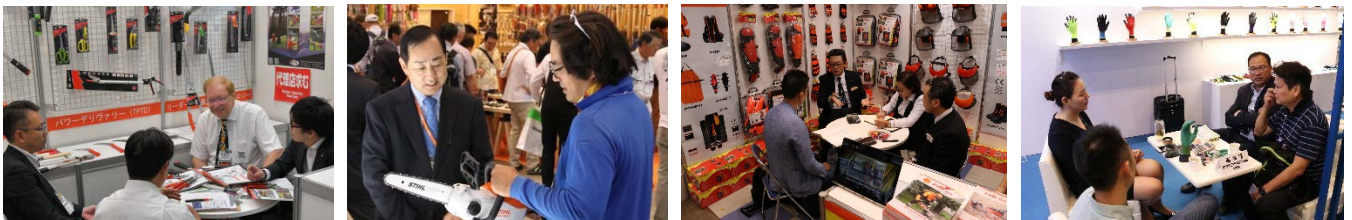

The show has been growing ever since its launch in 2011. Now, AGRI WEEK TOKYO has been established as Asia's leading exhibition for agriculture technologies where 680 exhibitors are expected to gather under one roof. The biggest news of this year is the launch of LIVESTOCK TOKYO, 1st Int'l Livestock Supply & Equipment Expo Tokyo, under AGRI WEEK TOKYO in response to the market growth in the livestock industry. With an addition of the livestock sector, AGRI WEEK TOKYO will provide even more comprehensive platform for the industry professionals.

AGRI WEEK TOKYO consists of 4 shows: AGRITECH TOKYO - 9th Int'l Agricultural Material & Technology Expo Tokyo -, AGRINEXT TOKYO - 6th Next Generation Agriculture Expo Tokyo -, 4th Farmers' Processing & Sales Support Expo Tokyo, and LIVESTOCK TOKYO - 1st Int'l Livestock Supply & Equipment Expo Tokyo -.

TOOL JAPAN 2019 - 9th International Hardware & Tools Expo Tokyo -

TOOL JAPAN has been established as Japan's leading trade show for tools and hardware industry since its launch in 2010, continuously expanding its size year by year. In 2019, 250 exhibitors will gather from around the world to receive orders from importers, home centres, tool shops, hardware shops, etc. Major tool brands have already decided to exhibit at the show this year, such as MAKITA, Husqvarna AB, Koki Holdings, Fujiwara Sangyo, etc. Additionally, with the special seminars conducted by WORKMAN, CAINZ, Amazon, and MonotaRO, the expectations from both exhibitors and visitors are higher than ever, promising concrete business connections on site.
